Her gown will be of ivory satin, made with a court train and with trimmings of rare old lace and pearls embroidered on the bodice. ## CHICAGO WOMAN ROBBED ON LINER

Jewels Worth $4,000 Taken From Stateroom of Miss Davis.

New York, August 30.—Jewels to the value of $4,000, the property of Miss Ethel Davis, of Chicago, were stolen from her stateroom on the Kaiser Wilhelm II. early last Friday morning during the steamer's voyage from Bremen to this port. The robbery became known with the arrival of the liner here to-day.

Miss Davis occupied a stateroom with her friend, Mrs. James S. Rogers. The circumstances of the disappearance of the jewelry from their stateroom were mysterious. At 2 o'clock Friday morning a messenger awoke Miss Davis and delivered a telegram for her which had been received on the steamer.

Left Berth Only Once. This was the only interruption to the repose of the woman during the night, and neither of them left their sleeping quarters until 6 o'clock in the morning. When Mrs. Rogers stepped outside and returned after a few minutes' walk to another part of the steamer.

Shortly after her return the women found that the jewels had disappeared. The most careful search failed to reveal a trace of them or any indication of the manner in which they had been abstracted. During Mrs. Rogers' absence the door of the stateroom was unlocked and Miss Davis had not yet awakened. The women were at a loss to determine whether the robbery occurred at this time or at the earlier hour, during the delivery of the telegram.

Detectives Meet Steamer. The loss was reported to the steamship officials, and several of the passengers from Chicago, headed by James G. Condon, president of the Ironsides Club of that city, interested themselves in the investigation and search for the missing jewels. A wireless message was sent to a detective agency, with the request that the steamer be met at quarantine.

No trace of the valuables had been found up to the time the steamer reached port to-day.

BUCKINGHAM SCHOOL GETS NEW PRINCIPAL

Minneapolis Man Accepts Position—No Change in Tuition at Arvon.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Buckingham, Va., August 30.—Professor O. E. Morgan, of Minneapolis, Minn., has been chosen as principal of the Buckingham High School, and Mrs. S. R. Bondurant, Miss N. C. Swoope and Miss R. P. Swoope have been elected as assistants. Professor Morgan is a man of long experience, having taught thirteen years at one place. He expects to locate permanently in Virginia.

Rev. Caesar Perkins has donated a house and lot to the Maysville school district, to be used as school property. Perkins is easily the most prominent man of his race in this county, and in the days of Republican ascendancy he held various high positions, having served for several terms in the Legislature.

The situation at the state quarries remains unchanged, except that in two of the quarries nonunion men are at work splitting slate. These men were not splitters by trade, but they are doing so in Virginia, and many of the substantial and best men among the strikers are looking anxiously on and wishing that they could resume work at the old rate of wages. If the advance asked for will not be granted, this last mentioned class of men, as a rule, are not likely to leave their own land and houses at Arvon, and some of them own an interest in quarry property.

ARRESTED FOR DESERTION. Leesburg Man Is Taken to His Home for Trial.

Washington, August 30.—Arrested yesterday afternoon in Pennsylvania Avenue by Detective O'Dea, of the central office force, upon a charge of desertion, a man named John M. Milstead, Jr., left late last night in the charge of a deputy sheriff to stand trial at Leesburg, Va.

Milstead was arrested just as he was entering a cut-rate ticket office to purchase transportation out of town. He was taken to the Sixth Precinct and held there until he had refused to return to Virginia without formal extradition papers, but on the arrival of Deputy Sheriff J. C. Lambert, of Loudoun county, he changed his mind. He is charged with having left his wife and baby on May 9, 1910.

MEARES WILL MAKE RACE IN SIXTH

Former Democrat Nominated for Congress by Republicans.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wilmington, N. C., August 30.—The Republicans of the Sixth Congressional District to-day nominated Wendell Meares, a lawyer of this city, and one time a strong Democrat, who has been defeated several times for office. Meares is a native of this State, and is making a strong fight, taking advantage of the factional differences that have arisen in the Democratic ranks. Meares announces that he will make a vigorous campaign. He is known as a strong and bitter speaker. He was one of the many Republicans considered by President Taft before he elevated Judge H. G. Connor, Democrat, to the Federal bench in this State, to succeed the late Judge Purnell.

BARBECUE AND FISHERY. Old-Fashioned County Dinner Served in Spotylvania.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Spotylvania, Va., August 30.—One of the largest attended barbecues and fisheries held in many years was given to-day at Pendleton's Mill Pond, in this county. The affair, which began at 1 o'clock and continued until 10 o'clock, was a most successful one. The management of Charles Oliver, arrived at the pond and harvested a rich haul of fish. The squirrel hunters brought in a lot of squirrels, and beef and lamb were liberally contributed. At 4 o'clock an immense dinner was spread and heartily partaken of by 200 guests. Speeches were made by several of those present.

Miss Maxie M. Pendleton, of Spotylvania, left yesterday for Wichita, Kan., to take charge of a training school of deafnesses in that city. Miss Pendleton for some years has been connected with Wilmore and Kingswood Colleges, in Kentucky, and goes now to assume personal responsibility of the institution at Wichita.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE. Experimental Plots of Corn and Tobacco Viewed by Visitors.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Farmington, Va., August 30.—A large attendance of representative farmers of this county attended the farmers' institute held to-day at experimental plots on the farm of Captain C. G. Snead.

Mr. Mathewson, of the United States Department of Agriculture, was present, and spoke on improvement of soil by a systematic fertilizing for the different crops. His lecture was much interesting, and will result in much practical good. A number of farmers of this district are now following Mr. Mathewson's system with the best results.

After the speaking the crowd was taken to the experimental plots of tobacco, the fertilizing tests being conducted by W. W. Green, who has charge of numerous test farms in Middle Virginia. Mr. Green carefully explained the results, amounts and use of the fertilizing tests.

A look over County Demonstrator W. O. Snead's fine test acre of corn was also a part of the program. This acre of corn will make about twelve barrels.

First Bait of New Cotton. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wadesboro, N. C., August 29.—The first bale of cotton from this year's crop was marketed at Morven this morning. The bale was sold by P. E. Ratcliff to T. V. Hardison. The bale weighed 517 pounds and brought 16 cents. It was the first bale last year, August 17, and in 1908 on August 13.

STATE TO RECEIVE BIG MILITIA FUND

Nearly $80,000 Is Total, but Its Expenditure Provided by Department.

FLAG WAS NOT JACKSON'S

Commander Had No Standard Report of Coast Artillery Encampment.

Although Virginia will receive a big sum of money this year as her allotment of the War Department's funds, the amount must be expended under the requirements of the Dick bill, and cannot be used at will. Besides, the subjects of expenditure in these days are so much more extensive than in previous years that, while the money doubtless benefits the militia and makes it more serviceable, it can be spent only in such a manner as the War Department prescribes.

Advices were received yesterday by the Adjutant-General's office from the department as to the amounts to be given to Virginia, and the purposes for which the money must be spent. For arms, equipment and camping purposes the amount is $25,210.14; for the promotion of rifle practice, $11,736.71. This makes a total of $46,946.85 for this branch of the work.

In addition, $10,353.13 is set aside for ammunition and $21,951.75 for supplies. Those items are, of course, furnished by the department, and do not come to the State in the form of money. For this purpose the total is $23,304.88. The grand total of funds as Virginia's part of the general military fund is thus $79,251.73.

NOT JACKSON'S FLAG

He Has None, and His Headquarters Were Never Captured.

After a research Colonel Joseph V. Biddgood, secretary of Virginia Military Records, has reported to Governor Mann that the flag which the State of New Jersey desired to present to Virginia was not taken from General Stonewall Jackson's headquarters, as had been surmised.

Two apparently strong reasons are given for this conclusion. One is that General Jackson had no headquarters flag, and the other is that his headquarters were never captured.

Colonel Biddgood in his letter to the Governor says that on this point he has consulted Dr. James Power Smith, a member of General Jackson's staff, who

IT WAS ECZEMA IT WAS RINGWORM

It Spread All Over His Head—If Touched It would Bleed and Leave Raw Spot—Could not Go to School—Spent $200, Still He Was Bald.

Got Cuticura. In Six Weeks He Was Well and Had Growth of Hair.

"One day, when my boy was five years old, I noticed a sore on the top of his head. It was eczema, as called in Dr. and he said it was eczema. After treating it for a week it spread all over his head, so the doctor advised us to see a specialist in New York, on the name of —. He said it was a bad case of ringworm and recommended a course of his. We doctored with him a long while and spent about $200 and the boy's head was still bald. He had a disfigured looking head. It would scale over night and if you touched it it would bleed and leave a raw spot. All this time he had not been able to go to school, although he was eight years old. — said, 'Why don't you take him to the — Hospital, as they have cured a young lady with the Cuticura Remedies.' They said the young lady's case had been different. So we decided to try the Cuticura Remedies ourselves. We got Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent and they gave us by immediate relief from the first application and in six weeks' time he was well and had a growth of hair. Now he is fourteen and has a nice growth of hair than my other children. The doctors all said he would be bald or his hair would come out in white spots, and several doctors said to take the child to the incurable hospital. We had at least seven doctors and we received no benefit from any. Mrs. Henry Lee, Liberty Corner, N. J., Feb. 25, 1910."

Constant Artillery Encampment Successful. Stry Commander.

Glowing reports of the good results of the recent encampment of the Virginia Coast Artillery at Fort Monroe are given in an official report made to the Adjutant-General by Captain C. A. McLean, who commanded the battalion. He praises the members of the four companies for their cooperation and renders his thanks to the officers at the fort for their kindness and courtesy.

The first company, with Lieutenant Crain commanding, was installed at Battery Bomford; the second company, Captain Abbott commanding, at Battery Church; the third company, Captain Burke commanding, at Battery De Russy; and the fourth company, Lieutenant Mack commanding, at Battery De Russy.

An attacking force, composed of the Second and Fourth Companies and the One Hundred and Eighteenth regulars, made an effort to capture the fort, which was defended by the First and Third Companies and the One Hundred and Sixteenth regulars. The umpires gave the decision to the defenders.

A summary of the target practice with the big guns is as follows:

Company	Sits.	Is.	P.C.
First	130	40	22.50
Second	78	18	23.20
Third	83	23	27.71
Fourth	92	26	28.26

VISITED TOMB

Virginia Commissioners and Judge Prentiss Paid Lafayette Homage.

In a letter received yesterday by the Governor's office from Colonel James Mann, chairman of the Houdon State Commission, he gives some additional details of the visit in Paris.

The commissioners visited the tomb of General Lafayette on the anniversary of the day he died. He joined the American forces, and Mrs. Mann placed a wreath on the grave. With the party was Captain Comte de Chambrun, a great-grandson of Lafayette, and Judge R. R. Prentiss, chairman of the Virginia State Corporation Commission.

FARMERS MEET AT A. & M. COLLEGE

Attendance Is Large From Various Parts of State. Charter Granted.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., August 30.—Rain interfered considerably with the attendance for the opening day of the State Farmers' Convention, that convened here to-day at the Agricultural and Mechanical College. However, there are large numbers of farmers here from various parts of the State, and there is every indication of a very satisfactory convention, in spite of the rain. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham and Dr. D. H. Hill, president of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. The principal address of the morning was by A. L. French, of Rockingham county, on "Twentieth Century Farming." There was also a valuable address on "Evolution of Farming," by Dr. S. B. Shaw, author of a very valuable treatise on canning fruits and vegetables.

The features of the afternoon session were an address by John W. Robinson, of Catawba county, on "Farm Machinery," Director C. B. Williams, of the experiment station, on "When, Where and How to Use Lime"; Dr. B. W. Kilgore, State chemist, on the use of fertilizers, and demonstration in the college field to how to select seed corn.

To-night there was the annual address of President Thomas W. Blount, of Washington county, and an address by State Horticulturist W. N. Hutt, on "North Carolina's Wealth in Fruits."

Major B. E. Dixon, North Carolina State Auditor, accepted to-day an invitation from General Julian S. Carr, commanding the North Carolina Division, United Confederate Veterans, for him to deliver the response to the annual reunion to be held in Norfolk beginning September 6 and 7. The addresses of welcome are to be on the part of the State of Virginia and the city of Norfolk. Major Dixon accepts with very great pleasure, he says, being an enthusiastic Confederate veteran, and himself active in the promotion of the welfare of the old soldiers, as the head of the State Pension Board, and in directing the affairs of the North Carolina Soldiers' Home.

The Robinson-Andrews Company, Bethel, N. C., was chartered to-day with $30,000 capital by John Robinson, T. R. Andrews and others, for general mercantile business.

LIFE NOT WORTH LIVING.

Andre Osko Commits Suicide to Keep From Going Blind.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., August 30.—Life is beastly and not worth living. Is there a meeting hereafter? If so, we will meet again. Good-bye.

This was the note left in the Slavic tongue by Andre Osko, a well-dressed stranger, of Slavic nationality, who deliberately took his own life here this morning by sending a pistol ball through his heart. He shot himself in his room, after donning new underclothes and a new hat, leaving for a tidy appearance after death.

Osko, who was about thirty-five years of age, was a fine physique, but had recently suffered from his eyes in the mining district of Wisconsin, that was destined to render him blind. He was recently translated by Mrs. W. F. Kandler, wife of a physician here.
